

JOB POSTING: COMMUNITY PROGRAM LEADEROrganization: Spirit NorthWork Location: Edmonton, Northern AlbertaPOSITION OVERVIEW:

Spirit North is seeking an outstanding candidate to provide leadership and assume responsibility for coordinating and delivering land-based sport and activity programs to Indigenous children and youth living in Northern Alberta regions of Edmonton, Lakeland, North Central Alberta, Peace Country, and Wood Buffalo.

BACKGROUND:

Established in 2017, Spirit North is a national charitable organization dedicated to empowering and inspiring Indigenous children and youth through sport and play. Our vision is health, wellness and a brighter future for all Indigenous children and youth.

Programs are developed and delivered in collaboration and partnership with communities for the purpose of improving physical and mental health, increasing community engagement, and building sustainable sport and recreation programs. Our methodology is designed to reduce barriers to participation in sport and recreation such as geographical isolation and socio-economic imitations, while incorporating community traditions, values, and beliefs.

Headquartered in Canmore (AB) with a satellite office in Edmonton (AB), our work is guided by our values which are the following:

- OPEN: we are diverse, inclusive, and respectful.
- CARING: we care about children and youth, communities, and the land.
- HONEST: we act with integrity, transparency, and accountability.
- COMMUNITY: we value partnerships, relationships, and success through collaboration.
